PUBLIC COMMENT

Residents Charles and Dorothy Wood who reside on East Main Street were present to express their concern of the flooding they experience when they receive heavy rains. Mrs. Wood stated that Moccasin Creek, which flows behind her house has not been cleaned out in a long time as well as the ditch tiles. She asked the board if there was anything the town could do or any grants that were available to help with the problem. Mayor Holt ask Ken Wall to check out the drainage tiles with the help from the fire department in case the tiles need blowing out. Mayor Holt stated there was no easy or quick fix for drainage problems in Pine Level, but the town will do what we can to help. He said they would also contact the Moccasin Creek Drainage Board concerning this problem.

PROCLAMATION FOR "ALL IN RED WEEK"

Mayor Holt read the Proclamation for "ALL IN RED WEEK" which is February 5-12.

He stated that February 5th marks the launch of an 8-day County-wide heart health awareness campaign entitled, "ALL IN RED", presented by Johnston Health and Dr. Matthew Hook and organized by the Johnston Health Foundation. It is an opportunity to increase heart health awareness and to invite all Johnston County residents, business owners, and visitors to participate by wearing red on Friday, February 5, 2021

"NATIONAL WEAR RED DAY". Mayor Holt encouraged everyone to support and participate in this event. Commissioner Bill Radford made a motion to adopt the Proclamation and Commissioner Greg Baker seconded the motion. The motion passed by unanimous vote. The Proclamation is included and made a part of these minutes.

APPOINTMENT TO JOHNSTON COUNTY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY BOARD

Mayor Holt informed the board that the position on the Johnston County Economic Development Advisory Board for Pine Level is up for consideration. He said Randy Jones has represented Pine Level on this board in the past and has reapplied for another term. Mayor Holt stated that the County needed a recommendation from the town for the appointment. Commissioner Bill Radford made a motion to recommend Randy Jones as the representative for Pine Level and Commissioner Greg Baker seconded the motion. The motion passed by unanimous vote.
