RESOLUTION TO APPLY FOR GOLDEN LEAF FOUNDATION FLOOD MITIGATION GRANT

A special meeting was called for the purpose of adopting a Resolution to allow the Board of Commissioners to apply for a Golden Leaf Foundation Grant. Mayor Jeff Holt stated the Town was awarded prior grants to have a company perform a study on the Town's drainage and sewer system which took place over the past two to three months. He said now with the completion of the study the Town has a plan and is ready for the next steps. He stated in order to apply for the Golden Leaf Foundation Grant the Board must adopt the resolution to undertake a public infrastructure project for flood mitigation.

Motion to approve: Commissioner Jimmy Garner

Second: Commissioner Phil Pittman

Vote: Unanimous

Discussion: Debra Heuertz, a resident of 113 Oak Street in Pine Level, asked how much would the Town receive from the grant. Mayor Jeff Holt stated the Town could request up to $250,000.
